BACKGROUND

Originally from Newport News, Va., Councilman Bower moved to Colorado with his wife, Katie, in 2005. He owns and operates Castle Rock Music and performs with various groups throughout the United States as a jazz trumpeter. He has a degree in music and jazz studies, with a concentration in education, from Christopher Newport University. Before being elected to Council, Jason served on the Downtown Development Authority and the Design Review Board.

Jason and his wife, a teacher at Douglas County High School, have two young sons who attend Castle Rock schools. They enjoy paddle boarding, camping, snowboarding and gardening, as well as supporting local businesses and events.
